

Case study snapshots:

Mr M was referred to us for support with paperwork relating to his drink driving charge, due to his dyslexia. We liaised with his employer to ensure that the drink-driving charge didn't cost him his job, and therefore his home, sorted out a clerical error relating to the payment of the fine, and incidentally discovered and resolved a problem with fraudulent withdrawals from his bank.

Mr S was released from prison with no money or food. So initially we gave him a foodbank voucher, and arranged a crisis payment. This was unfortunately stolen when he was assaulted in his temporary accommodation, which he refused to return to, thus risking a breach of his tagging order. We arranged with his probation officer for him to be transferred to his home town, completing his tagging there, and also transferred his benefits.

Ms R was struggling to manage financially, with her son in prison, and looking after his two small children. Her son was self-harming and threatening suicide, so we referred her to his solicitor, resulting in a 24-hour watch, which Ms R believes saved his life. She was helped to find nurseries and childcare for her grandchildren and given a foodbank voucher to tide her over.

Working with low level, first time and repeat offenders, as well as victims of crime, and families, based within the Magistrates Courts in Plymouth, Bodmin, Truro and Newton Abbot, problem-solving, sign posting and supporting through court processes.

The majority of the cases we see include one or more of these areas:

- Benefits
- Court related support
- Debt & financial worries
- Domestic abuse
- Employment & education
- Family matters
- Health & mental health
- Housing & homelessness
- Substance misuse

We work in partnership with other professionals from a wide range of organisations.

We focus on the needs of clients in the justice system, and who are often at a point of crisis in their lives. Our key aim is to provide access to answers.

We are also the co-ordinating service for victims of reported crime in Cornwall, linking those victims to relevant organisations for on-going support.
